CONTINUATION OF COMPLAINT:
Hector GUILLEN-GUILTRONPROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On January 12, 2008, at approximately 11:30 p.m., while working line watch duties west of Campo, California, Senior Border Patrol Agent R. Godreau responded to a sensor activation. This area is approximately nine miles east of the Tecate, California, Port of Entry, and half a mile north of the US/Mexico International Border, and is well known for alien and narcotics smuggling activities. Agent Godreau soon encountered four individuals trying to conceal themselves in the surrounding brush. Agent Godreau identified himself as a United States Border Patrol Agent and questioned each of the individuals including the one later identified as the defendant Hector GUILLEN-GUILTRON as to their citizenship. All four individuals admitted to being citizens and nationals of Mexico present in the United States without any immigration documents allowing them to enter or remain in the United States legally. Agent Godreau placed all four subjects under arrest and transported them to the Tecate Processing Center in Tecate, California, for records checks and interviewing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed an immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his immigration record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on December 15, 2007 through San Ysidro, California. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.

The defendant was advised of his Miranda rights. The defendant stated that he understood his rights and was willing to answer questions without an attorney present. The defendant admitted that he is a citizen and national of Mexico illegally present in the United States.
